etait syma It was so nice our friends lend us the cotage for holiday. We had such a great time the place is so lovely, she had told me to be carfull at the vas her And we gran gard her. It was so upseting as soon as we away, i was looking in all the shops for the duration of the holiday to find something similar, at the end all i found was a blue square vase, i dont know what she is going to think, We had to with nice indian sheets, the light bulb broke, mark freen had put some blue paint on the table so we though best was to make it nice so we made dots every where on the walls too it looked pretty nice.